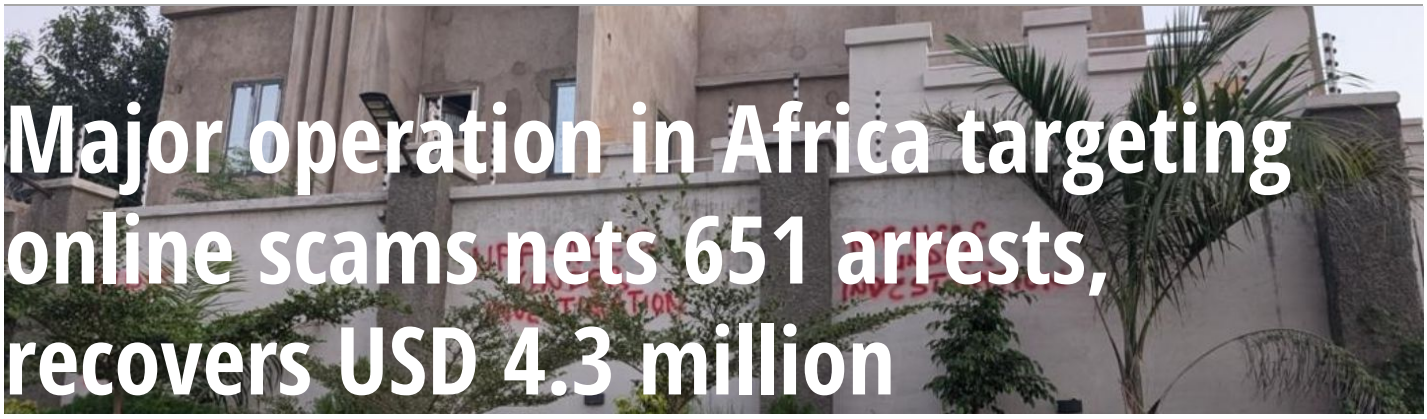
INTERPOL



Major operation in Africa targeting online scams nets 651 arrests, recovers USD 4.3 million

Highlights

News

Global operation safeguards 4,400 potential trafficking victims. detects 13.000

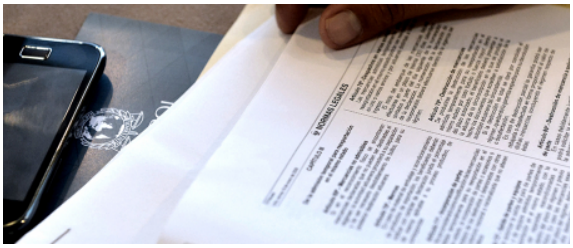
irregular migrants

News

INTERPOL to expand Lyon General Secretariat headquarters following agreement with France

News

INTERPOL and UNODC advance global coordination on fraud ahead of Vienna summit



Who we are

Elections of the Commission for the Control of INTERPOL's Files

Who we are

Call for contributions from civil society to the committee on the processing of data

Help us find them ...

VIEW RED NOTICES

View and search public Red Notices for wanted persons

VIEW YELLOW NOTICES

View and search public Yellow Notices for missing persons

Did you know?

196

We have 196 member countries who work together through INTERPOL to share data related to police investigations.

Did you know?

Border checks

Our databases can help border officers screen people, goods, vehicles and vessels. By providing information in real-time, these databases also allow officials to detain potential criminals on the spot.